

Photograph by Taber, San Francisco.

FRANCIS J. HENEY.

Because of Mr. Heney's success as Attorney-General of Arizona, the President made him Assistant Attorney-General of the United States, to prosecute the land grafters of the West Coast. Though threatened with death, he has fought on and confidently expects to secure convictions.—See "The West Coast Land Grafters."